
Becode example

Joffrey

Nov 16, 2020

PYTHON API

1	N'importequoi	1
2	Indices and tables	3
	Index	5

N'IMPORTEQUOI

```
class becode_example.Multiplication(multiplier) Instantiate a multiplication operation. Multiply by the given multiplier.
        Parameters multiplier (int, float) – Number used as multiplier.
multiply (number)
    Multiply a given number by a the multiplier.
        Parameters number (int, float) – Number to multiply.
    :return The result of the multiplication. :rtype: int, float
```

INDICES AND TABLES

- `genindex`
- `modindex`
- `search`

INDEX

M

Multiplication (class in becode_example), 1
multiply() (becode_example.Multiplication method),
1